Dear Members,

Thanks to those of you who turned up at the AGM. We managed a new record by wrapping it up in less than 40 minutes and then we moved on to the food and drink (Minutes attached). There's still plenty of wine and beer left so come along to the next social to help us clean it up. Apart from that, July was fairly quiet for the hall but the Red Herrings hosted a very successful Matariki party and contributed $620 to the hall. This Saturday, 31 July, Jacqui Fell is going to be at the hall from 12-3 for a drop-in consultation on the Onetangi beach plans. We were going to have a working bee to paint the kitchen annex and work on extending the drainage trench behind the kitchen, but the weather didn't play along - more on this soon. In the meantime, the weather is looking up and spring is just around the corner.
