Dear Members,

We hope you have all successfully made the transition back into a more “normal” lifestyle. It’s good to be back and to see bookings for the hall coming in. We have consulted with officials regarding regulations for hall use and it is clear that under the current settings, users will need to be fully vaccinated. To this end, we have developed a set of guidelines for users, available on our website. If you want to book the hall for a birthday, wedding, party, etc. it would be good to book early as there has been a lot of interest.

To start the ball rolling, we thought we would have a get together on Sunday, 12 December at 5 pm. We will need to follow the legal requirements for checking passes and social distancing. If you have had trouble downloading your pass, bring along your phone and we will help you, or bring along a paper version or relevant email. The question of shared food is a little unclear so it might be easier not to bring food this time, but of course bring along what you want to drink. It is still to be confirmed, but a couple of top island musicians wanting an opportunity for practice may also be there to provide a little music.

As you will see from the calendar, the Arts and Crafts Fair participants have decided to postpone this event until next March.

For those of you interested in the issue of heli-pads on the island check out the Quiet Sky Waiheke website for updates on progress: <https://quietskywaiheke.nz>

If you have any ideas for our next social event, in January or February, please let us know.

We wish you all a mere kirihimete, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
